VIRUS. BEYOND THE DARK HORIZON vol.2

calling for contributors to pocket book
green anarchist art, poetry, rants

So now it’s global pandemic time! Who would have thought? Any maps of change we might have started crawling on the shores are washed away.

Limits of 2 people allowed to gather.

‘Did I touch my face?’

Overnight mass unemployment, police state, hospital systems collapse!

Mines still running, forests still getting logged to fuck while thousands die!

How the fuck do we resist now?

Maybe the pandemic is to be overshadowed by the economic crisis to follow, we had a taste of climate downs this summer, who would have thought those masks would get a work-out again so soon.
